The argument a shutdown would've benefitted Trump is belied by how Republicans voted in lockstep to avert one.

And 10 of your Dem colleagues helped them. For nothing.

Complicit.

Feels like a great afternoon to remind you that as soon as Schumer, Gillibrand, Fetterman, Schatz, Durbin, Hassan, Shaheen, Cortez-Masto, Peters, and King are done helping Republicans get this Trump-Musk coup-empowering government funding bill over the finish line, the Senate goes on recess.

Mar 14, 2025, 09:17 PM UTC

Congress is now headed home for recess and we will be there to hold them accountable. We're planning town halls and events across the country to make sure everyone knows about the Trump-Musk coup. We can't count on all our supposed leaders to fight back, so it's time for us to turn up the pressure.

Mar 14, 2025, 09:17 PM UTC

In a total betrayal of their constituents and our democracy, 10 Democrats just voted with Senate Republicans to give Trump and Musk a blank check to continue their coup.

@schumer.senate.gov led Democrats to this total surrender. We need strong leadership, not cowards who cave at any GOP pressure.

Mar 14, 2025, 03:31 PM UTC

New Yorkers were up bright and early to demand @schumer.senate.gov stop enabling the Trump-Musk coup and instead fight back against fascism.

Mar 14, 2025, 01:22 PM UTC

A shutdown starts at midnight tonight, and there is still time to reject the GOP's harmful, partisan slush-fund for Trump and Musk.

Their CR also would impose draconian spending cuts on Washington, D.C., which would be devastating for children in the nation's capital.

Mar 14, 2025, 12:36 PM UTC

Trump and Musk are staging a coup.

We must not give our leverage away.

Mar 14, 2025, 12:32 PM UTC

I don't buy the narrative that Trump & President Musk actually WANT a shutdown. If that was the truth, they would've put forth an even worse bill that would 100% guarantee zero Dem votes.

What they did was propose a bill that green-lights DOGE & Elon's billionaire takeover by omitting guardrails.

Mar 14, 2025, 01:12 AM UTC

We want Democrats to play hardball and use their leverage to stop the Trump-Musk coup.

Mar 13, 2025, 11:15 PM UTC

No Dem Senator has to follow Schumer here. This is a weak strategic move driven by fear and learned helplessness. Don't follow him. He's leading the party into irrelevance and helping Trump and Musk in the process.

Call your Dem Senators and ask them not to join Schumer's surrender tomorrow.

Mar 13, 2025, 04:27 PM UTC

It's blatant and overt. Trump is selling the USG off for parts and Musk is reaping the profits.

Mar 13, 2025, 12:53 PM UTC

Republicans are using the threat of a shutdown to try to ram through an extreme bill that threatens Social Security, cuts important programs, and gives Trump and Musk even MORE latitude to dismantle the federal government.

Senate Democrats must hold the line, and they need to hear from you ASAP. 📌

But let's be clear: Trump and Musk don't actually care about violence. If they did, they'd start with their own movement — the one that stormed the Capitol, attacks activists in the streets, and fuels political violence daily.

Trump and Musk want us to feel weak and alone so that we stay quiet.

We can't let the GOP escape the fury of their constituents. Even though Republicans are afraid to talk to voters right now, we can still make them squirm: indivisible.org/muskorus

Mar 05, 2025, 04:13 AM UTC

Republicans are dodging town halls and refusing to face their voters, because they don't have solutions or guts. They own this disaster as much as Musk and Trump.

These are not normal times, and we cannot treat this as business-as-usual politics. Indivisibles aren't going to let them hide.

Mar 05, 2025, 04:13 AM UTC

So far, we've learned that Republicans in Congress have no hard lines. Tonight, they all stood and clapped on cue as Trump rambled on about his despotic agenda and made us all less safe.

Republicans don't want to answer for Trump or Musk, and so they've decided against showing up in public.

Mar 05, 2025, 04:13 AM UTC

With each passing day, we are waiting to see when Republicans will draw the line: Will it be when he proclaims himself king (again)? Or when he degrades our foreign allies on Putin's behalf (again)? Or when he and Musk eliminate government agencies that keep our country safe and running (again)?

Mar 05, 2025, 03:43 AM UTC

Trump and Musk's illegal spending freeze has already setback critical research for cancer treatments.

Mar 05, 2025, 03:33 AM UTC

Trump said, "The days of being ruled by unelected bureaucrats is over."

Meanwhile, shadow president and unelected billionaire Elon Musk watches from above, making sure Trump sticks to the script.

Mar 05, 2025, 03:15 AM UTC

Trump and Musk are risking our Social Security benefits by demanding up to 50% cuts to staff. Since the agency is already facing a backlog, these cuts could extend wait times by a year or more.

Mar 05, 2025, 03:11 AM UTC

I agree with Donald Trump that an unelected bureaucrat should be fired.

Let's start with Elon Musk.

Mar 05, 2025, 03:08 AM UTC

Let's be clear: Trump and Musk are stealing from life-saving programs that millions of Americans rely on, just so they can cut taxes for the ultra-wealthy.

I think the part where Trump brags about Doge and thanks Musk would be a good time to make a stink and get kicked out.

Mar 05, 2025, 02:05 AM UTC

Illegally and arbitrarily fired by Elon Musk, my constituent Dr. Lauren McGee is standing strong with me for all federal employees at the Joint Address in the Capitol tonight.

Lauren's pediatric cancer research at the NIH saves lives, but DOGE throws everything into chaos.

Dozens of Members of the Ukraine Caucus are here to stand strong for democracy, freedom and international law against Trump, Putin and Musk.

Mar 05, 2025, 01:32 AM UTC

There should be no business as usual while Trump, Musk, and Republicans in Congress continue their wholesale assault on our country. We encourage Democrats to use tonight's speech to highlight the impacts of Trump's destructive proposals and Musk's lawlessness.

Mar 05, 2025, 01:32 AM UTC

Almost every Republican supports ripping away life-saving programs like Medicaid and risking a government shutdown to protect Trump's illegal power grab. It would only take a handful of GOP electeds to end the executive branch overreach, but they're too afraid of Musk funding a primary challenger.

Mar 05, 2025, 01:32 AM UTC

Kennedy Center chairman Trump is about to tell a lot of lies about the fear and chaos that he's causing with President Musk. But tonight isn't about Trump or Musk — it's about the Republicans who are hiding from their constituents while enabling the Trump-Musk coup. 🗳️

Even though Republicans control the White House, the Senate and the House, we are still facing a government shutdown because the GOP can't get its act together. Trump, McMahon, Musk, and MAGA Republicans are threatening every student, educator, family, and community in this country. They are attempting to destroy public education as we know it—cutting funding and spreading hate instead of creating opportunities for students to thrive. It's unconscionable.

Mar 03, 2025, 08:07 PM UTC

Another congressional recess is coming up in two weeks, and Republicans are going to do everything they can to hide from their constituents. Let's show President Musk just how real we are.

We asked and you didn't disappoint: Here's the music that is helping you get through the Musk-Trump Administration. 📌

Trump and Musk are messing with Social Security by demanding 15% cuts to staff.

"We are already short-staffed as it is. Right now we are working on applications generally from 2023-ish."

These Trump and Musk Social Security cuts could mean that "easily the wait times will be extended by one year."

As Republicans continue to hide from their constituents, it's clear that the GOP is terrified of the backlash from the Trump-Musk coup.

That backlash will grow even bigger if Republicans back a spending bill that cuts life-saving programs like Medicaid.

Keep up the pressure on GOP representatives.

Republicans just voted to take your money and give it to billionaires.

It's not enough that House Republicans are enabling Trump and Elon Musk's outrageous power grab. Now they're selling out everyday Americans so that Trump, Musk, and their billionaire allies can get even richer.

Donald Trump promised to lower costs, in his own words, "on day one."

Now, Trump and Elon Musk are gutting the consumer agency, which will increase costs on working people.

HELLO. Are you looking for a very comprehensive toolkit about how to take on the Trump-Musk administration and their congressional enablers this recess?

We've got you covered: docs.google.com/document/d/1...

Feb 15, 2025, 02:10 PM UTC

It's time to do what we do best: Make Republicans squirm and ensure Democrats fight like hell.

Your representative is back home for recess and we've got events planned across the country (including Tesla dealerships).

We know that showing up works and the stakes are too high to stay home. LFG. 📍

Feb 15, 2025, 12:09 AM UTC

Elon Musk is consolidating power for himself. This isn't just about MAGA lawlessness — he's a billionaire seizing control of government power to drive authoritarianism. That's why we're bringing the fight directly to him with Tesla protests at showrooms, factories and dealerships across the country.

Feb 15, 2025, 12:09 AM UTC

Your House representative is now back home through February 23.

That's where we come in.

With Trump and Elon Musk pulling off a billionaire coup in real time, this congressional recess is about turning up the heat like never before. Let's get to work: indivisi.org/muskorus

Thanks to Elon Musk and DOGE, our adversaries now have access to sensitive information about one of our intelligence agencies.

Elon Musk and DOGE staff should NOT have access to sensitive national security information. www.huffpost.com/entry/elon-m...

The Musk-Trump administration is objectively pro-cancer

Feb 14, 2025, 08:51 PM UTC

If Elon Musk truly cares about being "maximally transparent," he should release the forms showing his financial interests.

Americans deserve to know how Elon Musk will profit from his role in the Trump Administration.

Gov. Hochul: NYers are hurting & scared of what Trump-Musk are up to. We need leaders who fight, not traitors who profit from fascists. #MayorAdams isn't putting NYC first. He has broken his oath. But you have the power here. Hold #EricAdams to account—remove him ASAP.

Feb 14, 2025, 08:25 PM UTC

Elon Musk is not a disinterested actor when it comes to our nation's budget. He has tens of billions of dollars wrapped up in contracts and subsidies.

The idea that he is meddling in government spending out of the goodness of his heart is pure fantasy.

Feb 14, 2025, 07:06 PM UTC

Donald Trump and Elon Musk are trying to cut funding for cancer and rare disease research.

A federal judge temporarily blocked the cuts in some states, but this fight is not over.

We can't let them play politics with our health.

Feb 14, 2025, 01:59 AM UTC

Donald Trump and Elon Musk's idea of efficiency is stopping research on curing cancer.

Feb 13, 2025, 07:01 PM UTC

NEW: My office is hearing that DOGE is now at the IRS. That means Musk's henchmen are in a position to dig through a trove of data about every taxpayer in America. And if your refund is delayed, they could very well be the reason.

Feb 13, 2025, 06:49 PM UTC

We're getting more calls now than at any time since I've been in Congress. I'm helping out on the phones, talking to constituents about what I'm doing to stand up for the country and federal workers under attack by Trump and Elon Musk.

I welcome your calls, I am listening, and your voice matters.

Feb 13, 2025, 05:52 PM UTC

Yet again, Republicans refused to put their sacred obligation to their constituents and the Constitution over their loyalty to President Musk and Kennedy Center chairman Trump.

Now, it's time to make GOP senators pay a steep political price:

There is literally HIV being transmitted from mom to baby because of the illegal shutdown of US AID and now Trump's State Department wants to spend 400 million dollars on Tesla cyber trucks. This is not about efficiency. It's a smash and grab.

Feb 12, 2025, 09:43 PM UTC

Just heard from a Minnesota farmer who fronted her own money for some conservation work because USDA had a contractual agreement to reimburse her.

Musk's freeze means she's out that money and USDA is refusing to reimburse.

Feb 12, 2025, 07:39 PM UTC

This is absolutely insane. Musk's DOGE crew just straight up took $80 million from an NYC bank account!

Feb 12, 2025, 04:33 AM UTC

Santa Barbara peeps: your town hall last Saturday was featured tonight on Rachel Maddow.

YOUR Town Hall. YOU made it happen, by showing up in person and online. By saying it loud: RESIST the Trump-Musk coup.

We at Indivisible Santa Barbara are proud to represent you.
We can do this together.

Feb 12, 2025, 02:45 AM UTC

President Musk and Kennedy Center chairman Trump are stealing from us.

Feb 11, 2025, 09:52 PM UTC

We understand that big concentrations of wealth and power in this country hurt us and help billionaires like Elon Musk and his friends. They like it that way and use chaos/misinformation to distract us from their end game: Giant tax breaks for big corporations and billionaires.

Follow the money.

Elon Musk is trying to shut down the CFPB, the agency that has forced big banks and corporations to return more than $21 BILLION to families they cheated.

Feb 11, 2025, 02:22 PM UTC

Just a wild guess, but I'm going to say that cancer research is wildly popular. Again, every Republican in Congress should be met with a wall of questions about whose side they're on: Elon Musk or kids with leukemia. It's really that simple.

Feb 11, 2025, 02:01 AM UTC

Elon Musk is trying to kill the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau because he wants to steal from the American people.

Feb 11, 2025, 01:55 AM UTC

Trump, Elon, and their allies are calling all spending they don't like "fraud." Spending on things like consumer protection, Social Security, and medicine for sick kids.

But just calling something "fraud" doesn't make it so. Here are the actual facts 📌📄

Feb 11, 2025, 01:32 AM UTC

We expect zero votes from the WA delegation for this budget, without safeguards against Musk, Vought violating the constitution to plunder public services.

Feb 10, 2025, 11:22 PM UTC

If you couldn't join us today, what we need right now is an unprecedented show of constituent power to hold Republicans accountable for their complicity in the Trump-Musk coup and demand that Democrats use every ounce of leverage they have to fight back: indivisible.org/coup?source=...

Feb 10, 2025, 10:34 PM UTC

"Trump ran his campaign on lowering costs for working families. Now he and his co-president Elon Musk have tried to shut down the agency that has delivered $21 billion to hard-working families. $21 billion to people who got cheated and Trump & Musk want to just take that agency away." - Sen. Warren

Feb 10, 2025, 10:00 PM UTC

"We're headed into a showdown with congressional Republicans. Do you know what they're doing right now? They're asking for Democratic votes to give money to Trump and Musk to continue to raid our government." - @ezrlevin.bsky.social Democrats must withhold their votes.

Feb 10, 2025, 09:15 PM UTC

NOW: We're rallying at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau with Sen. @warren.senate.gov, Rep. Waters, @moveon.org, @boldprogressives.org, and many more. The CFPB protects consumers from predatory practices, and we must protect the CFPB from President Musk's attempts to kill it.

Feb 10, 2025, 09:04 PM UTC

Government funding runs out on March 14. Republicans can't pass a bill alone, so Democrats have real leverage here. We're calling on Democrats to commit to withholding their votes and insist on an end to the Trump-Musk coup rampaging across the government.

Feb 10, 2025, 08:55 PM UTC

Government funding runs out 3/14. GOP can't pass a bill alone, everyone knows this. The question is if Dems will bail them out for nothing, or if they'll withhold their votes and insist on an end to the Trump/Musk coup rampaging across the government.

This, more than anything, is their leverage.

Feb 10, 2025, 05:11 PM UTC

This is all part of a deliberate and unconstitutional coup against the agencies that exist to protect people orchestrated by Trump, Musk, and the billionaires they serve.

That's why we're rallying with @moveon.org, @boldprogressives.org, and more in a few hours. We hope you will join us. 📍

Feb 10, 2025, 05:11 PM UTC

The CFPB has returned more than $16 billion to defrauded consumers since its creation and has acted as a watchdog over the financial services industry.

By killing the CFPB, Trump and Musk are delivering an enormous gift to Wall Street and payday lenders while leaving everyday Americans defenseless.

Feb 10, 2025, 02:30 PM UTC

Congress created the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and no one — not the President, not Musk, not Vought — can illegally shut down its work.

There is power in fighting back, and we will not let up in Congress, in the courts, or in public until we win this fight.
